Record Sale of Men's Shirts

Over 15,000 Garments Involved

In An Underprice Event

Certainly Without Parallel

$1.50 and $2.00 Shirts, 97c

$2.50 Shirts, $1.23

$2.50 to $3.50 Shirts, $1.69

Two different shirt-making concerns are represented, but the bulk of the sale stock comes to us from one well-known firm that closed out its entire stock in order to shape matters for the retirement of a partner. Distribution of this remarkable collection is a big undertaking—the greatest of the kind our Men's Furnishings organization ever attempted. But the outcome is certain, if an extraordinary underpricing combined with excellence of the Shirts appeal to you as it did to us.

Brief details of the three groups:

At 97c Coat Model Shirts with cuffs attached or detached; made of woven madras, in an assortment of handsome patterns. Standard $1.50 and $2.00 garments.

At $1.23 Coat Model Shirts, cuffs attached or detached; made of fine quality imported madras. Generally retailed at $2.50.

At $1.69 The cream of the sale stock—Pleated and Plain Negligee Shirts made of very fine quality imported madras, linen and chevrons—chiefly coat models, with cuffs attached; also fine Flannel and Silk Negligee Shirts, with collars and neckbands. These are standard $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 garments, all bearing the manufacturers' labels—guarantee of excellence. The opportunity like the value and the quantity of shirts involved—is unprecedented.
